- Fun and informal music courses
- Highly-trained and friendly music leaders
- Make friends as you develop new skills
- Every course leads to a celebration performance
- High quality, creative opportunities in a range of musical genres

For full course information and fees, visit www.bhma.org.uk

Closing date: 2 June 2014

Open Access – no previous experience required!

Create your own Wallace & Gromit-style animation, sing a solo in our vocal studio, create an original soundtrack to a short film, or perform popular songs from the shows. Courses in music technology, music & animation, musical theatre and pop vocals available for young people of primary and secondary age.

Fun Days

A fun-filled musical day to celebrate your first year of learning! One day courses for children in year 2/3 who have been learning keyboard or violin.

Studio, Workshop and Techniques Courses

2 and 3 day courses for young musicians who want to get together with others who learn the same instrument. Different courses available depending on your age and level of experience for brass, drum kit, guitar, keyboard, strings or woodwind players.

Music Groups and Bands

Great opportunities to get together with other young musicians, form a band and prepare for a performance at our Folk Workshop, Summer String Ensemble and Summer Wind Band courses.

Who is Summer School for?

Courses are available for a range of instruments/voices, with opportunities for children and young people from year 2 to year 9. We have a number of 'Open Access' courses which require no previous experience – just sign up and come along! There are also great opportunities for children who have been learning an instrument for 1 year or more alongside bands and ensembles for more experienced musicians.

What does it cost?

Course fees begin from £30 for 1-day courses. A Subsidised Course Scheme is available for children and young people from families on low incomes. Parents of students who attend Brighton & Hove local authority schools or academies may apply for a subsidy by indicating this on the application form.

How do I apply?

- For full course information and fees, visit www.bhma.org.uk
- Complete the application form and return it to Brighton & Hove Music & Arts
