

Playing Puppets

at Theatre Royal Brighton

Guaranteed to pull the strings and float the boat of everyone 4 – 10 yrs and the adults they bring with them!

Playing Puppets is a very special event created by Theatre Royal Brighton and H2oh! Education for The Family Arts Festival, the first UK-wide festival of eye boggling arts for all the family.

Theatre
Royal
Brighton

28 & 29 October 2013

ATG TICKETS To book www.atgtickets.com/brighton (bkg fees)
0844 871 7650 (bkg fees) At the Box Office, New Road, Brighton BN1 1SD

Supported by family
investments

Monday 28 & Tuesday 29 October

Playing Puppets Family Sessions

Spend a full morning or afternoon on stage and create your own puppet, learn how to animate it, meet puppeteers, try out different types of puppets, watch a show and follow our trail around the building to find puppets of all shapes, sorts and sizes.

Mornings 10am – 1pm (includes performance of Red Riding Hood)

Afternoons 2pm – 5pm (includes performance of The Animal Story)

Session tickets: Adults £12, Children/Seniors £10, Family ticket, 4 people, £38

Tuesday 29 October

Playing Puppets Pop In

A chance for adults and older children to follow the puppet trail, meet local puppeteers, try out some table top puppet makes, watch pop up performances and take in the atmosphere and history of our beautiful 200 year old Theatre. Our special back stage bar will be open so pop in and play.

FREE 6pm – 8pm

Everything is waiting for you to come and play puppets – all you need to bring is your imagination

